Jewish Rites of Death Receives Prestigious Silver Nautilus Award

MAY 10: SANTA FE, NM—Terra Nova Books is proud to announce that one of its recently published books, Jewish Rites of Death: Stories of Beauty and Transformation by Richard A. Light (ISBN 978-1-938288-55-5, $23.95, 164 pages, paperback) has been chosen as a Silver Award Winner in the 2016 Nautilus season (<http://www.nautilusbookawards.com/>). The Nautilus Award is given to books making a contribution to a better world by meeting high editorial and design standards. The core mission of the award is to celebrate and honor books that support conscious living and green values, high-level wellness, positive social change, and spiritual growth. The Nautilus award winners will be displayed at this month's upcoming Book Expo America and American Library Association meetings.

Jewish Rites of Death: Stories of Beauty and Transformation tells the poignant stories of those who participate in the age-old rituals accompanying the passage across the sacred space between life and death. The book also covers the practical questions a family faces when a loved one dies. Terra Nova Books (www.terranovabooks.com) is an independent publisher that focuses on Southwestern titles, fiction, memoir, and books on healthy lifestyles.

Author Richard A. Light is a leader in the community of those who prepare Jewish bodies for burial, and has published three previous books on the subject. He continues to teach and raise awareness about Jewish death and burial practices at the local, state and national levels. He lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
